

Brad's Questions for Discussion

- 1. What has God already revealed of His will in His word that we know is our responsibility? What else would you like to have from the Lord with respect to what we are supposed to do? Why or why not?
- 2. What kinds of discussions/topics have a way of getting in the way of the Gospel? What tends to derail a Gospel discussion? How can we work our way out of these mine fields?
- 3. Where have you seen the Lord open doors to spiritual conversations? Are there people for whom you are praying to have one? Could there be and who would it be if you did?
- 4. What's something through which you're having to persevere right now?
- 5. What do you think of the suggestion at the conclusion of today's message?
- 6. What scene from the 2nd missionary journey stands out to you? Why?
