

Discussion Questions

1. Talk about a time when you felt like you needed to take matters into your own hands.
2. What do you think both Naomi and Ruth expected would happen that night?
3. What does this chapter teach us about God's, "chesed," His loyal lovingkindness?
4. What do you think it means to both have patience but also take a step of faith?
5. Do you think God is as committed to you as Ruth was to Naomi? Why or why not? How might that show itself in daily life?